NOTE: If we do not receive your application 45 days prior to your event, licensed street vendors will be permitted to operate in their approved locations.	Fees payable to Health Dept

Please describe your event. Attach additional pages if necessary.

Publicity:

We really want to help publicize your event! Do you want this event added to the Ogden Community Calendar listings?  No  Yes (You must add it yourself – See instructions below) The community calendar is actually several venue calendars that “talk” to each other with all events shared on the Ogden City website. If you add your event to the Ogden City calendar, you do not need to add it to any other Ogden venue calendar.

Instructions for adding your event to the Ogden Community Calendar: Go to www.ogdencity.com. At the top of the home page, click on the “Ogden Area Events Calendar” tab. When the calendar opens, click on the “Submit Event” button located in the column on the left side of the main calendar. Follow the prompts to add your event to the calendar. Be sure to put a detailed description in the event description (or notes) section. This is what the public will see on the calendar. Your submittal to the calendar will go through an approval process and should appear on the calendar within a couple of business days. If you have a press release or flyer, please attach a copy to this application. If you have problems submitting your event, please call the calendar coordinator at 801-629-8988.

You can also add your event to the Utah state event calendar by going to www.nowplayingutah.com. Click on the “submit listings” tab at the top of the page.

You may also want to check event calendar submissions with local publications and TV and radio stations.
